KING IN SPEECH FROM THRONE OFFICIALLY OPENS PARLIAMENT

Urges Continuance and Extension of Ameliorative Measures Prepared by Lloyd George Ministry as Regards Trade and Employment—Also Calls for Guarantee of Loan for Restoration of Austria

LONDON, Nov. 23 (By the Associated Press).—The new parliament will be asked to continue and extend the ameliorative measures prepared by the Lloyd George ministry as regards trade and employment, and also to guarantee a loan for the restoration of Austria, said King George today in his speech from the throne, officially opening the session.

The king expressed the hope that the Lausanne conference might result in the establishment of peace and the restoration of security to inhabitants of regions which have recently been the scene of so much suffering.

The ceremony today was attended with all the colorful splendor of the age-old function of the opening of a parliament by the king, but probably the main interest centered in the speech from the throne, giving an indication of the government's program for new legislation.

While the king's speech was exceedingly short, it touched some of the restoration of security to inhabitants of regions which have recently been the scene of so much suffering.

MAYOR BROWN BEFORE COMMITTEE ON TAXATION AT STATE HOUSE

Suggests Limit of Expenditure of Money for Schools, But Has No Details of Plan to Present—Says He Might Be Able to Offer Details Later—Questioned by Committee Members

(Special to The Sun.)

BOSTON, Nov. 23.—Mayor George H. Brown, of Lowell, was before the special investigation committee on municipal taxation at the state house today.

The committee was appointed by the legislature to determine ways by which the ever-increasing taxes of Massachusetts cities could be lessened. Mayor Brown suggested a limit should be placed by law upon the proportion of the tax rate that may be expended in any department of a city government. Mayor Brown told the committee it is a common practice with various city departments to exhaust their appropriation before the end of the year and then force additional money through the medium of emergency appropriations which are taken out of next year's taxes.

The Lowell chief executive also urges the passage of a law prohibiting cities from borrowing in excess of a given amount of money in any one year.

A committee member asked Mayor Brown how Lowell could save in expenditures if it were conducted as a private business rather than a public business. Mr. Brown replied in two ways, by limiting the amount the city could borrow, and limiting the amount of appropriation for any one department. The mayor caused considerable surprise when he told the committee that there should be a limit per capita on the amount which could be expended for schools. He said the cost of school maintenance in Lowell has increased 100 per cent in four years.

"How would you limit the expenditures for schools per capita in Lowell and other cities in order to keep the taxes down?" he was asked.

"That is hard for me to say. I should think this committee of the legislature with all of the data at its command could work out some plan."

The committee thought it strange that he should not be able to give them a plan, and he said he would not have details of his plan worked out. Mr. Brown said he might be able to offer details later.

84 KILLED AND 60 INJURED

Disastrous Explosion in Coal Mine Near Birmingham, Alabama

Of the Injured 25 Were in Hospital—Blast Felt Miles Away

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 23.—Eighty-four lives were lost and 60 persons were injured as a result of an accident and explosion yesterday in Dolomite No. 3 coal mine of the Woodward Iron Co., according to a statement issued at noon today by Frank H. Crookard, president of the company. Of the injured 35 were removed to their homes; 25 were in hospitals. Work of identification at that hour had not been completed, but it is believed there were 38 white dead and 20 white injured.

Shortly before midnight the work of identification of dead was halted, authorities and officials turning all of their attention to caring for the injured.

The force of the explosion was felt in Birmingham, nine miles distant, the concussion being distinctly heard in the South Highlands residential district.

Stories of heroism, common in coal mine disasters, began to trickle to the outside early today as hurried rescuers came to the surface after long hours of work in the mine.

POLITICAL FORUM AT AUDITORIUM

All candidates who desire to take part in the public political forum to be held at the Memorial Auditorium next Monday evening, the night before nomination day, must apply for a place on the program before tomorrow, Friday night, if they wish to be assured of an opportunity to speak.

The time to be allotted each speaker will depend entirely upon the number who apply, for all available time will be divided equally among those who designate their intention beforehand. The trustees feel this is the only fair method of time-distribution available.

Applications must be made at the Auditorium office. As an application is received it is time stamped, and in this way a chance to speak is assured.

Probably Charles H. Hobson, chairman of the trustees, will preside at the forum, although he would much rather have some other man take the job. He said today, however, he will assume the task unless able to induce some other man to serve.

It is the belief of the trustees that ward candidates would reap little benefit from the forum and, therefore, preference will be given to mayoralty, councilor-at-large and school committee aspirants.

TELLS OF TRIP TO THE ORIENT

Interesting Story Recounted by Arthur D. Prince After Three Months' Journey

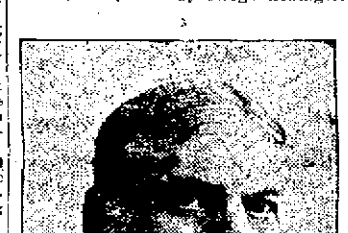

Traveled Through China and Japan and Was Lavishly Entertained

Granted Audience With

President of Chinese Republic in Forbidden City

Arthur D. Prince of Lowell returned home last night after a three months' trip through China and Japan, on which he was accompanied by Mrs. Prince and F. H. Hilden of Belmont.

An audience with Li Yuan Hing, president of the Chinese republic, in the official reception palace within the Forbidden City, where the death penalty awaited those who entered unbidden before the republic became established; receptions by Judge Lebingler, who presides over the United States court in China, by Hon. Jacob Shirman, American minister, and by Hon. John K. Davis, American consul at Nanking, and an audience with Wang Ching-lin, prime minister of China, were some of the high lights of a most wonderful journey that was marked by every conceivable form of courtesy, attention and entertainment.

ARTHUR D. PRINCE

Mr. Prince made the trip as Most Worshipful Master of the Grand Lodge of Masons of Massachusetts, and it was in the nature of an official visit to the six lodges in China over which the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts has jurisdiction. It was the first official visit of a head of the Massachusetts body.

FIREWORKS AT PEACE CONGRESS

LAURENCE, Nov. 23.—(By the Associated Press).—Turkish fireworks enlivened this morning's session of the commission on territorial and military affairs of the Near East peace conference.

Ismet Inas, Kenaliet foreign minister and head of the Ankara delegation, loudly protested against the "gag rule," which he said had been imposed upon the members of the conference and charged that the Turks apparently were about the only ones who were respecting the secrecy pledge.

THIRY-NINE CARS OF COTTON ARRIVE FOR THE APPLETON AND HAMILTON MILLS

Arrival of Cotton Denotes Renewed Activity in Local Textile Industry—Local Warehouses Report No Surplus Stocks on Hand—Some Complaints Heard About High Freight Rates

Arrival of Cotton Denotes Renewed Activity in Local Textile Industry—Local Warehouses Report No Surplus Stocks on Hand—Some Complaints Heard About High Freight Rates

All 1922 records for single-shipment deliveries of cotton to Lowell textile mills have just been broken by the arrival in Lowell of 39 cars in one shipment, the cotton being consigned to the Appleton and the Hamilton mills.

All of the cars were handled direct, without local storehouse handling. Figures given to The Sun today from local authorities in charge of directing the distribution of the cars to the two mills purchasing the raw product show that approximately 1500 bales went to the Appleton company and the remainder to the Hamilton company.

As showing an immediate period of new activity in the local cotton textile industry, there is no better sign than that cotton is once more moving north in fairly large quantities.

"The arrival of 39 cars filled with cotton in Lowell is the 'strik' of the town," today in local industrial circles. The shipment—"in one"—as it is termed in railroad vernacular, was made on through consignment to the Appleton and the Hamilton mills. The cars containing the above-mentioned cargo, left Waverley shortly before midnight, bound for a summer home in Rahmond, N. H. When the cars arrived in Lowell, they were found to be empty.

MAN CHARGED WITH KILLING COMPANION IN DRACUT WOODS GUILTY OF SECOND DEGREE MURDER

(Special to The Sun.)

CAMBRIDGE, Nov. 23.—A superior court today returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the second degree against John Bedrosian of Lawrence, charged with the murder of Jacob Sarkisian, also of Lawrence, in Dracut woods last August. The verdict was returned after a four-day trial.

The finding is in accordance with the request of Assistant District Attorney James C. Reilly, who conducted the government's case. The court has not yet pronounced a sentence, although the maximum under the verdict returned is life imprisonment.

The case has been at trial for six days and the defendant was represented by Edward J. Tierney and Melvin C. Rogers, attorneys of Lowell. The foreman of the jury was C. Harry Chapp, also of Lowell.

Bedrosian was arrested for the murder at St. John's hospital, where he was treated for wounds which he claimed were received when he and Sarkisian were attacked by a group of strangers while picking blueberries in a Dracut patch on the afternoon of Aug. 16 and in which Sarkisian was killed. The government contended these wounds were self-inflicted and that Bedrosian's story of strangers was a myth.

DRIVER OF DEATH CAR FACES TWO MANSLAUGHTER CHARGES IN THE DISTRICT COURT

As a result of an auto accident in Lawrence, early today morning in which two men lost their lives, Edward J. Lynch of Waverley, who was the driver of the car, was arraigned before Judge Knight in district court this morning on two complaints of manslaughter.

He pleaded not guilty and was released on bonds of $1000 and $1000, to appear in court on Dec. 10. It is believed the result of the inquest will be known. Lynch was arrested this morning shortly after he was brought to St. John's hospital, where he was treated for wounds which he claimed were received when he and Sarkisian were attacked by a group of strangers while picking blueberries in a Dracut patch on the afternoon of Aug. 16 and in which Sarkisian was killed. The government contended these wounds were self-inflicted and that Bedrosian's story of strangers was a myth.

PETER H. SAVAGE DEAD

Well Known Local Undertaker Died Suddenly in Boston, Yesterday

Peter H. Savage, well known local business man and for the past 27 years proprietor of the undertaking establishment that bears his name, died suddenly in Boston yesterday afternoon. Death was due to a heart attack. He was 57 years of age and at the time there was nothing to indicate illness of any sort. He had spent most of the forenoon at the state house. He collapsed about 2:30 o'clock and died shortly after being taken to a relief hospital.

He left his home yesterday morning on a business trip to Boston and at that time there was nothing to indicate illness of any sort. He had spent most of the forenoon at the state house. He collapsed about 2:30 o'clock and died shortly after being taken to a relief hospital.

Mr. Savage had lived in Lowell for nearly 20 years and through business and social and fraternal associations had many intimate friends and a circle of acquaintances of more than usual size.

He was born in Boston, one of 11 children of Eugene and Margaret Collins Savage. He was educated in the city by his mother when but a child, his father having died during his childhood. He received his education in the old Mann school and afterwards went to the grammar school with his brothers at the corner of Market and Jefferson streets. Twenty-seven years ago he left the grocery business and established the undertaking concern that he had conducted successfully ever since. His present location is at Market and Northern streets, and the firm advised when the business was incorporated.

Mr. Savage married Mahel Norton, daughter of a former assistant chief of the Lowell fire department. Five children were born to them, all of whom are now living. They are: Mrs. Mary C. Savage, wife of a student at Boston college, and Edward, now attending St. Patrick's high school. He also leaves one brother, Eugene, of this city.

Mr. Savage was a member of Boston Deacons assembly, Fourth Deacons, Knights of Columbus, Lowell Council, 72, Knights of Columbus, Holy Name society of St. Patrick's church, C.Y.M. in the Broadway social and athletic club, Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters and Court Merrimack, P. of A.

39 Cars of Cotton Arrive

mills named via the Merchants & Miners' Transportation company from Alabama, Ga.

The bills of lading showed exactly 245 bales, making one of the largest individual shipments of cotton that has been directed Lowellward for some time.

No Staple Stocks on Hand

At two of the largest public warehouses in this city, this morning there are no large stocks of baled cotton on hand in Lowell storage. At the Lowell Public Warehouse company on Market street, an official said:

"We have plenty of space available for more cotton stocks, but deliveries to our storages at the present time are not large. There appears to be no great scarcity of cotton, but at the same time no surplus. You see, when the long depression in the mills came, all cotton corporations had huge quantities of raw cotton stored in their own stockrooms and outside storages. When the mills started to operate again, the increased operations because of the revival of sales and demands for new goods, the mills used up practically all the local stocks they had accumulated. When the agents went out into the market, they bought only what 'futures' they needed for immediate operations."

The Sun was also informed that at the present time, even with the general increase in local textile activities, there are no large stocks of the raw material on hand in Lowell.

At the Bay State storage, it was said that no large amounts are on hand and that shipments come along "few and far between," with the exception, of course, of 39 cars, which was on (through) consignment direct to the mills involved in the "buy."

Cotton Stocks Scarce

Outside advices from the cotton selling centers, north and south, indicate that there are few large stocks of cotton on hand anywhere. Compared with the amount last year, The United States sold in Memphis is but $5,000,000, against 167,000 a year ago, 220,000 in 1920 and $2,000 in 1919.

Small quantities of cotton are available here, but the fact is also true, buyers say, that considerable cotton is covered on factors' tables and is held for higher prices. This condition makes for the scarcity of cotton available for immediate purchase.

American spinners, while consuming cotton more rapidly than last season, actually are carrying less stock in Lowell than at this time last season. There has been a notable expansion in spinners' taking during the past two or three weeks as compared with the preceding season and shipments of cotton are steadily going on each week to supply the urgent demands for the raw products.

Shipping Rates High

Some complaint has been registered by Lowell cotton textile interests regarding the so-called high freight rates on raw cotton in bales from southern points to Lowell. The Sun is informed that the present rate is 1½ cents a pound from southern points to this city. With bales weighing 480 lbs., and each bale containing from 70 to 75 bales, the expense amounts up, and of course is one of the reasons for the recent advances in the general lines of nearly all textiles manufactured in Lowell and vicinity.

to these lodges, one of which approaches 60 years of age. Mr. Hilton, who accompanied him, also is an officer of the Massachusetts Grand lodge.

China Needs Assistance

Before recounting the many happy experiences of his trip, Mr. Prince today gave thumbnail impressions of the world he had seen, particularly the former country, in which he spent a greater length of time.

"I was greatly impressed with the opportunities that await Americans and business men from all over the world in China," said Mr. Prince, "but China needs help, financial and otherwise. Only a very few of her four hundred millions of people are acquainted with western civilization. Agriculture is tremendous in scope, but it is being used thousands of times in the type of the Chinese, who are in the process of modernization."

"Outside of the connections between treaty ports I doubt if there are 1000 miles of railways in China," he continued, "and practically it is impossible for there to be no connecting roads. This, of course, provides great handicaps to transportation and the reason for great China famines is found in this inability to transport food from one place to another. Practically every bit of food brought to seaports is transported by camel trains or by slow moving, hand-power boats."

Mr. Prince saw signs of revolution, but no actual conflict, although soldiers were to be seen everywhere and the feeling of revolt was in the air.

Friendly Attitude Among Japanese

Diverting his story for the moment to Japan, Mr. Prince stressed the fact that he found only the most friendly attitude toward Americans in that country.

"If the Japanese are unfriendly, it certainly did not show on the surface," he declared, "and not one single incident that I saw made me doubt for a minute that we were among friendly people. The people of Japan are quite so open in their protestations of cordiality as are their neighbors in China, but we were given every courtesy and consideration."

Mr. and Mrs. Prince and Mr. Hilton, their common traveler, left Lowell on August 14 and went to Vancouver by way of the Canadian Rockies. They sailed from Vancouver on August 24 and arrived at Yokohama on September 2. They were met at the dock by a delegation of merchants, headed by E. M. Frazar, one of the leading merchants of the Orient and a member of an old Bay State family. They were lavishly entertained at Mr. Frazar's home and several motor cars were placed at their disposal. The party was spent in sightseeing and from there they journeyed to Kobe and sailed for Shanghai two days later.

Welcomed to Shanghai

At Shanghai the travelers were met by a delegation from Massachusetts lodges there, who accompanied them to their quarters at the Astor hotel. Ten days spent in Shanghai were memorable in pleasure, social and Masonic functions took up most of their time and one of the most enjoyable affairs was the reception given in their honor by Judge and Mrs. Lowminger.

From Shanghai they went to Pe-

FIVE-YEAR-OLD BOY SHOT THROUGH HEART

NEW BEDFORD, Nov. 23.—The body of five-year-old David Haym, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hyatt Haym of 355 Coggeshall street, was found in the kitchen of the home of John Iva, 353 Coggeshall street, at 10:30 this morning. David, this noon, the police were searching for a chum of the lad. David was shot through the heart and is believed to have died about instantly.

According to Richard Haym, aged 6, a brother of the dead lad, the shooting was accidental.

king, the capital, stopping at Nanking on the way. Nanking at one time was the capital, but practically was wrecked during the recent revolution. Many interesting and historic monuments were destroyed during the general ruin caused by rioting and military attack.

Another day was spent in Tientsin, where Mr. Prince constituted a Masonic lodge. The journey from there to Peking was made in company with a delegation of Tientsin Masons.

Visited Temples and Ming Tombs

"Our stay at Peking was a continual round of pleasure," said Mr. Prince. "Not only were we entertained at every turn, but we had opportunities for sightseeing could not be improved upon. We visited the marvelous temples and the famous Ming tombs, which are the mausoleums of former emperors of China. This trip to the tombs was one of 25 miles over roadless and practically featureless country. We saw a sedan chair, each supported by four coolies and for this journey, which took a whole day, each of these coolies received a princely pay of 75 cents, gold."

"We extended our trip from the tombs to the great wall of China. This was a comfortable and pleasant journey. Returning to Peking, we continued Mr. Prince. "We were entertained at dinner by the American minister, Hon. Jacob Shuman. There were present many foreign diplomats, Dr. Wellington Koo, China's foreign minister and a number of Chinese army and navy officials."

Audience with Prime Minister

He was indeed fortunate and greatly honored by having granted an audience with Wang Chung, the prime minister and the ablest man of the present republic. Mr. Wang is a member of the International Masonic lodge in Peking, which has its membership about 25 of the leading men of China. Mr. Wang is a graduate of Yale and has accomplished the wonderful feat of running the legal code of Germany into Chinese.

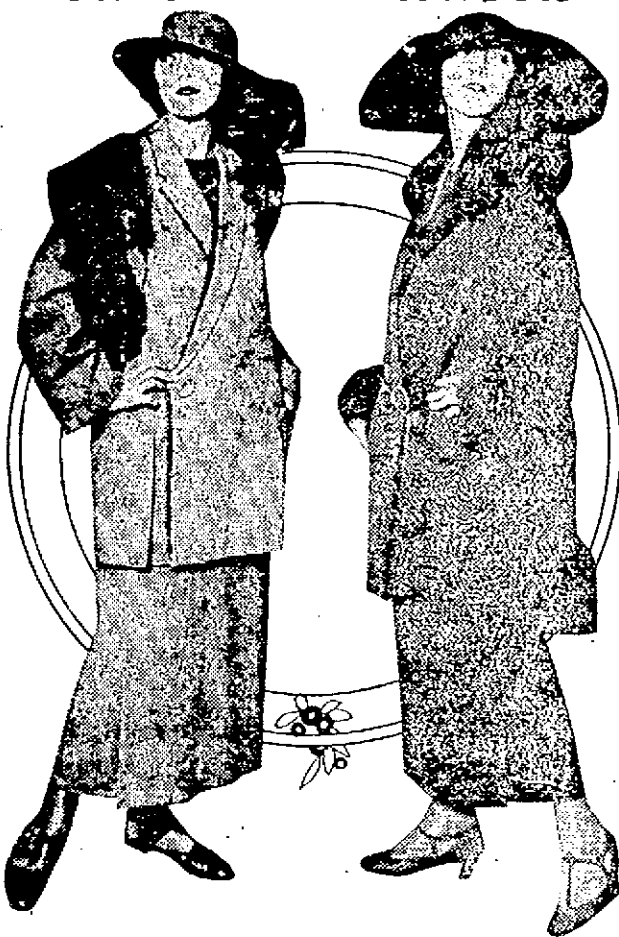

He and Dr. C. T. Wang, the present commissioner for Shanghai, were both members of the Chinese delegation in Washington at the recent peace conference and also strong members of the Versailles conference.

Audience with President of Republic

"It was here," continued Mr. Prince, "that I had an audience with Li Yuan Hing, president of the republic of

Plain Suit the Best

Correct Incorrect

The woman of curves or of medium figure finds herself much more distinctively costumed in a plain tailored suit that fits her figure properly than in fancy attire which has not taken into consideration the lines of her figure.

She also has a much more attractive silhouette and a more trim appearance if she sticks to medium-brimmed hats instead of indulging in the very wide ones, no matter how stylish they may be.

Don't Squeeze Black-Heads—Dissolve Them

Squeezing and pinching out black-heads makes the pores larger and causes irritation. Blackheads are caused by accumulations of dust and dirt and sebum from the skin and there is only one safe and sure way and one that never fails to get rid of them—a simple way, too—that is to dissolve them. Just get from any drug store about two ounces of calomine powder—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet cloth—rub over the blackheads briskly for a few seconds—wash off and you'll be surprised to see that every blackhead has disappeared and the skin will be left soft and the pores in their natural condition.

Is Your Heart in the Right Place?

"Palpitation" or "fluttering" of the heart and shortness of breath are often thought to be the result of some organic heart trouble, when really these distressing symptoms are caused by constipation and indigestion which inflate the stomach with gas, causing it to crowd the heart out of position and preventing its normal action.

SANALT the Sensible Tonic, gradually and surely overcomes this bad condition of the stomach and bowels, and thus stops the accumulation of gas in the stomach and intestines, relieving and preventing much so-called "heart trouble."

Since it was first prepared by a well-known New England physician over 100 years ago, SANALT has been constantly and successfully used by doctors and the public. Don't confuse it with cathartics. SANALT is entirely different—a reconstructive tonic compounded from vegetable alternatives, and entirely free from opiates, narcotics, or other harmful drugs. The following letter tells how it helped an elderly clergyman, Rev. Granville Pierce, of Warwick, Mass., who writes:

"I had been suffering nearly a year from nervous exhaustion, which in its development had seriously affected the nerves of the stomach and bowels. There was a general depression, with irregular heart action. I was exceedingly constipated, suffered intensely from flatulence, or gas in the stomach, and my appetite had almost deserted me. Two months spent at the seashore brought an improvement, but when I returned to Warwick, in the latter part of August, my trouble soon became as bad as ever. I commenced taking SANALT early in October. There was an almost immediate improvement. In two weeks I felt decidedly better. The whole tone of the system had improved; appetite was better and I felt considerably stronger. As an alternative tonic and appetizer, I have never known the equal of SANALT."

You can get SANALT, or the other famous Winsol products, at any drug store. For Winsol preparations are one line of trade-marked proprietary remedies sold by both Winsol Agents and non-agent druggists. No need to accept substitutes. Any druggist can get Winsol remedies for you through his jobber.

NEUROPATHIC DROPS, the great emergency medicine, and CERIZANE BALSAM, for coughs, are two Winsol remedies that should be kept in every home. Ask your druggist about them.

B. O. & G. C. WILSON, Inc., BOSTON, MASS.

B. O. & G. C. Wilson, Inc., established in 1815, is conducted on a unique profit-sharing plan which benefits everybody concerned—the Winsol Agent, all non-agent druggists, every Winsol employee and the general public. The Winsol Plan—the last word in co-operation—is responsible for the rapid growth of the Winsol business to a position as one of the largest and most successful drug specialty houses in the country today.

MODEST OBSERVANCE OF SILVER WEDDING

Conductor Frank S. Pearson, a railroadman for 26 years, and Mrs. Pearson today planned to celebrate the 25th anniversary of their marriage by attending a local theatre and partaking of a chicken dinner in a local restaurant this evening. And that was the extent of the popular N.Y.N.H. & H. trainman's celebration of his wedding anniversary, for the reason that he couldn't get temporary leave of absence from headquarters, and could make no more elaborate preparations to celebrate the day at the Pearson home, located in North Haven, near Proctor. The Pearsons lived in Lowell for seven years after their marriage.

Conductor Pearson has been making the night run into Lowell near the Framingham division of the New Haven road for several years, and has been employed on this railroad system since he began hitting the rails. His daily passenger train is due at the Middlesex street station each night at 7 o'clock, when it is late. Pearson is well known all along the line, and was born right over in South Chelmsford living there during his earlier years.

The conductor has been with the New Haven just 26 years, starting in Lowell in the freight yards, where he was employed for three years, then moving up to the train service as brakeman for two years more. From that time on he has been in the passenger train service on the New Haven for 20 years, all told—eight years as conductor with the gold-brided cap and chevrons.

The conductor married a well known Lowell girl in his younger days—Miss Mabel A. Stevens of London street, and they are the proud parents of 10 children. One child died early in life, a fraternal or railroad association, but is one of the best liked trainmen on the New Haven lines. He is noted for his modesty and courtesy at all times. Many trainmen who heard the wedding anniversary news all up and down the line today were congratulating Pearson, the "big family man," and wishing him well when he starts out tonight on that unostentatious, supportive trip.

HELD LADIES' NIGHT

Ladies' night was held by the Y.M.C.A. dormitory men in the association hall last night. Features of the evening were contained in the "Song Shop," presented by Horatio H. Leggat; piano selections by Miss Grete Darling; violin selections by Miss Marion Adams, and a series of monologues by Ottomar Holt. The committee in charge was composed of Dexter McCannan, Harold Benedict, Alfred MacGregor and Guyer Barchard.

LOCAL JEWELERS WILL ENTERTAIN VISITOR

For the first time in the history of the organization Lowell will be visited by a national officer of the National Jewelers' association when Walter H. Mellor of Michigan City, Indiana, comes here on Saturday. Mr. Mellor is field secretary of the national organization and is on an extended tour of the territory in and about New England.

Included in his trip as a visit to every city in the Merrimack valley with Lowell as his chief objective. He will be the guest of Frank Heard, who is affiliated with the national state and city jewelers' associations. Mr. Heard has sent out letters to every jeweler in this city, Lawrence and Haverhill, advising them of Mr. Mellor's intended visit.

An visit comes on Saturday. It will be impossible for the jewelers to gather for a formal reception but they will welcome Mr. Mellor to their stores.

NEGRO NOMINATED BY PRES. HARDING

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—About a thousand nominations, mostly of postmasters, but not including supreme court or other federal judicial selections were sent to the senate yesterday by President Harding in the first batch of presidential appointments forwarded since congress reconvened. The president also delayed transmitting nominations for federal reserve board vacancies and it was reported that these would not be ready before next month.

Many of yesterday's nominations, which included the federal coal commission and seven major and 12 brigadier generals, had been submitted during the last session of congress, but failed of action.

Transmitting of the road commission, appointed soon after the last session, adjourned, is planned by senate leaders, but several other nominations are promised sharp opposition. Among the latter is the nomination of Walker J. Cohen, negro and veteran of the Spanish war, to be controller of customs at New Orleans.

HANDKERCHIEFS

Polka-dots blossom profusely on some of the newest handkerchiefs. Irid ones are apt to appear on an orange background and purple ones on green. Very tiny glove handkerchiefs are shown this year. They are tucked into the tiny velvet bracelets worn about the wrists.

DONOVAN SPEAKS AT MANY RALLIES

John J. Donovan, candidate for mayor, continued his rapid fire canvass of the city last night by addressing rallies in six sections. He laid particular emphasis last night upon the manner in which he believed the various departments at city hall should be conducted. He said that he was of the firm belief that the city could not be successful unless harmony existed between the mayor, departmental heads, and the city council, the latter two bodies which he regarded as the mayor's cabinet. He compared city management to that of large corporations comparing the various departmental heads with boards of directors and the city council with the representatives of the stockholders.

Mr. Donovan said he felt confident of success this year. He pointed to the fact that many people said last year before election that they would like to vote for him because he was a good fellow and a brave man but they didn't because they thought he didn't have a chance. With all this propaganda to overcome he stressed the fact that when the votes were counted he had missed the nomination only by a small margin. He will address several rallies tonight.

Wild applause has greeted Georges Clemenceau during his American tour. This photograph was taken during his stay in New York.

Here is little "John Doe," about 2½ years old, who is unclaimed in New York after a Pullman trip from Shreveport, La. The Pullman porter stated that a woman had asked him to bring the child to New York where he would be claimed. The child cannot speak his name and no clue to his identity has been discovered.

Home-made, but Has No Equal for Coughs

Makes a family supply of really dependable cough medicine. Easy to prepare, and gives about $2.

If you have a severe cough or chest cold accompanied with soreness, throat tickle, hoarseness, or difficult breathing, or if your child wakes up during the night with cough and you want quick help, try this reliable old home-made cough remedy. Any druggist can supply you with 2½ ounces of Pinex. Pour this into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. This recipe makes a pint of really remarkable cough remedy. It tastes good, and in spite of its low cost, it can be depended upon to give quick and lasting relief.

You can feel this take hold of a cough in a way that means business. It loosens and raises the phlegm, stops throat tickle and soothes and heals the irritated membrane that lines the throat and bronchial tubes with such promptness, ease and certainty that it is really astonishing.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is probably the best known means of overcoming severe coughs, throat and chest colds.

There are many worthless imitations of this mixture. To avoid disappointment, ask for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

MINIMUM WAGE LAW

Sweetser Urges Act Be Made Enforceable—Calls Present Statute Unfair

BOSTON, Nov. 22.—The special commission created by this year's legislature to investigate the operation of the minimum wage law and the question of unemployment held an all-day hearing at the state house yesterday at which concluding arguments were made.

Gen. E. Leroy Sweetser, commissioner of labor and industries, said it was not for his department to take ideas for or against the repeal of the law or the proposition to make it mandatory. He felt, however, his department should ask that the law be made enforceable. He made the four points against the present law; that it is not fair in that it does not apply to all cases equally; that, as carried out now it is mandatory in some occupations and not in others, even in the same industry; that it penalizes the men who obey and rewards those who refuse to obey; that where the law is enforced and under the enforcement employees lose their positions the purpose to protect them is defeated.

Argument for repeal of the law and against making the law mandatory was made by Alfred E. Lunt, counsel for a large group of employers. Alexander Whiteside, counsel for the Boston Retail Merchants' association, argued for the repeal of the law, or against a mandatory provision, saying that the situation is too deep for the control of legislation, that it rests upon the law of supply and demand and it ought to be left to an educated public sentiment.

Miss Ethel M. Johnson, assistant commissioner of labor and industries, denied that any undue influence had been exerted by the commission upon wage boards.

Mrs. Susan W. Fitzgerald brought to the commission the plank of the recent democratic state convention in Springfield, which she drew herself, after a discussion of the minimum wage, against relaxing any restrictions for protection of women and minors. Lawrence Brooks, counsel for the petitioners that the law be made mandatory, closed the hearing with a summary of the case for his clients.

The following licenses were transferred, both being for billiards and pool: James Telton, from 25 Suffolk street to 115 Middlesex street; Edward J. Donnelly, from 1021 Gorham street to 912 Gorham street.

TO PILOT PLANE ACROSS UNITED STATES

BY HARRY HUNT
NEA Service Staff Writer
WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—A bluegrass beauty from "Old Kentucky," Miss Beulah Walton of Lexington, Ky., has set her heart on being the first woman to pilot a plane, alone and unattended, in a coast-to-coast flight.

Frisco to Washington, via Reno, Salt Lake City, Cheyenne, Omaha, Chicago and Dayton is the route chosen by the young aviatrix. She plans on making the trip in one week by easy flying stages. She will be her own pilot and mechanic.

Miss Walton's first taste of air adventure was in France when she was an entertainer with the A.E.F. Later she learned to handle a plane herself and has taken many friends "up in the air."

"This trip, however, she proposed to go it alone—just to show MacReady, Kelly and other men that a transcontinental feminine flight is more than a mere flight of fancy.

Weather conditions permitting, she has informed friends here who have arranged landing facilities that she'll make the trip before Thanksgiving.

READY TO QUIT TURKEY

American and British Interests to Remove Property if Conference Fails

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 23 (by the Associated Press).—American and British interests are taking steps to remove their property and personnel in the event that the Lausanne conference fails to accomplish its purpose of establishing peace in the Near East.

The largest and oldest British business house in Turkey began today to transfer its entire assets, valued at $1,500,000 from the main street of the city to the docks so that its goods might be immediately removed. This action was a signal for several local firms to do the same. American and British concerns have chartered large steamers to carry away their effects and others have insured their stock against looting and incendiarism.

The Near East relief today transferred $200,000 pounds of relief supplies and additional members of its staff, together with several hundred orphans in Ploiești aboard the Belgian steamer Marie Louise.

Plans have been perfected for embarking the American residents of the United States destroyers and the U. S. S. Pittsburgh, which are stationed here.

Check Up Details of Hall-Mills Case

SOMERVILLE, N. J., Nov. 23.—Officials conducting the Hall-Mills murder inquiry before the grand jury which was adjourned until next week, devoted today to checking up details in the case. It was expected that the presentation would be concluded Tuesday.

Girl Athlete Barred for Wearing Trunks

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 23.—Miss Julia Durrant, sophomore at the University of Washington is out of athletics at that institution for the rest of the quarter, it is unofficially reported, because a newspaper Sunday printed a photograph of her wearing running trunks like those worn by male track athletes. According to Miss Mary Gross, head of the university department of physical education for women, a jumper-bloomer suit of serge, is the limit for girl athletes.

Penn. Experiencing Serious Droughts

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 23.—Pennsylvania is experiencing one of the worst droughts in its history. Johnstown, the scene of one of the most disastrous floods on record, now is the most acutely affected by the dry spell, which dates back to July. Meteorological authorities in Harrisburg, say the drought is the most serious experienced in this state since 1930.

Letter Threatens Life of Mrs. Phillips

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 23.—The district attorney's office today made public a letter threatening the life of Mrs. Clara Phillips, convicted of second degree murder for beating Mrs. Alberta Tremaine Meadows to death, with a hammer, if she were not sent to the penitentiary. Mrs. Phillips was to appear in court today, with counsel to ask for a new trial on technical grounds. "Fatal mistakes were made in the records," her counsel declared, "and there are ample grounds for a new trial."

DOCTOR STOLE AUTO TO GET PRISON SENTENCE

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 23.—Dr. E. J. Lenthien, sentenced to 15 months in a federal prison on a charge of taking a stolen automobile from Portland to Spokane, told Judge R. S. Bean he wanted a penitentiary term in order to carry out psychopathologic studies among convicts.

He said he was a graduate of a large university in the east, that he and several associates planned to study criminals at close range, and that three of his medical friends had been sentenced to penitentiaries and now were serving time. He gave the names of each. He said two of them were in the Alcatraz federal penitentiary but would not tell where the other was.

He said he had made numerous attempts to obtain a prison sentence in New York but each time had succeeded in getting only a jail term.

VICTOR

Bonar Law indulged in an unconscious snide when the election returns showed the conservatives winning in the English election. Here he is shown addressing voters from a coach window on his journey to Leeds.

Though the systematic education of deaf mutes is quite modern, yet history mentions several persons so afflicted who were well instructed, able and of considerable standing in their communities in the Middle Ages and even in ancient times.

King Opens Parliament

most vital subjects of the day. Aside from the reference made to the necessity of passing the Irish bill in conformity with the Anglo-Irish treaty, which is one of the first duties of the new parliament, the utterance which attracted most attention was that forecasting the extension of ameliorative measures for trade and employment, which the speech said were being prepared by the new government.

"The state of trade and employment continues to cause me deep concern," said the king, and this was in substance a reiteration of Prime Minister Bonar Law's oft-repeated words during the election campaign. Prosperity and tranquility must be founded on improved trade and decreasing unemployment, Mr. Bonar Law had said.

It was considered significant that while the king was proclaiming this legislation, thousands of the unemployed were continuing their meetings of yesterday in London, asking relief from present conditions.

The king spoke as follows:

"My Lords and Members of the House of Commons:

"The constitution for the Irish Free State having been passed by the house of parliament established under the Irish Free State agreement act of the last session sitting as a constituent assembly, and it being required by the terms of that act that the constitution should come into force by Dec. 6, next, I have summoned you to meet in order that legislation necessary to give effect to that constitution and to make provisions consequential on the establishment of the Irish Free State may at once be submitted for your approval.

"The state of trade and employment continues to cause me deep concern. Ameliorative measures prepared by my state government are being examined afresh, and you will be asked to make provision for their continuance and extension and to guarantee a loan in accordance with the League of Nations scheme for the restoration of Austria.

"Negotiations for a settlement of difficulties in the Near East are proceeding and it is my hope that at the conference at Lausanne, the efforts of my ministers, acting in whole-hearted co-operation with the representatives of our allies, may result in the re-establishment of peace and the restoration of security to the inhabitants of regions which have recently been the scene of so much suffering.

"And I pray that the blessing of Almighty God may rest upon your deliberations."

AD KING

Labor Dissatisfied

LONDON, Nov. 23 (by the Associated Press).—J. Ramsay MacDonald, leader of the opposition, declared in the house of commons this afternoon that the statement in the speech from the throne regarding employment was profoundly unsatisfactory to labor. He said it showed that the government had no real appreciation of a terrible tragedy.

WINTER CARE OF AUTOS AND BATTERIES

Protecting the flush of a highly polished car and conserving the heat energy generated by the motor are two highly important things to any motorist.

Another highly important feature of winter driving is the rate of the storage battery in the car.

The flush of a car may be exposed to serious damage during winter due to the fact that mud and water frozen on the paint dull the finish and cause the paint to chip. During the winter months, extreme care should be taken to keep the finish free from dirt. Contrary to popular belief, hot water should not be used in cleaning a car, as it is equally as injurious as mud and ice. If it is not possible to take the car into a farm place for washing, where the ice will thaw and can be easily removed, lukewarm water may be used without injury to the finish.

Heat is one of the all-important factors in winter driving. During the summer months the average driver has little trouble with getting his motor warm enough to operate smoothly and economically but during the winter it is difficult for some cars to warm the motor enough to insure this efficient operation.

As a result, gasoline passes by the pistons and gets into the crank case.

Good

and good for you

Raisins furnish 1560 calories of energizing nutriment per pound.

They are rich in food-iron—also good food for the blood.

So raisins, luscious fruit-meats in themselves are not merely good, but good for you.

Sun-Maid Raisins should cost you no more than the following prices:

Seeded (in 15 oz. blue pkg.)—20c
Seedless (in 15 oz. red pkg.)—18c
Seeded or Seedless (11 oz.)—15c

Sun-Maid Raisins

the gasoline does not give its maximum power and the oil is not heated to such a point where it will lubricate the bearings and gears as it is intended to do.

This passing of gasoline to the crank case may be considerably reduced by the use of a radiator shutter or cover for keeping the engine warm during idle periods when it may be left standing out-of-doors or in unheated garages. Numerous devices are being marketed for this purpose, ranging from a waterproof covering to an automatic control shutter. A hand-operated shutter which serves the purpose of conserving the heat of the engine to a very great extent and is very economical to install, can be purchased from any reliable accessory dealer. There are also on the market several devices which are quickly and easily installed and prove economical heating units.

The storage battery of a car is an all important feature of the operation and one too frequently neglected. Care should be taken at the start of the cold weather to see that it is properly charged. Any service station will be glad to give you this information.

During the winter months, due to the short days, the lights of a car are used a great deal more than in summer. The starter, also, is used considerably in getting the car running when it is cold, and this results in drawing a great deal of power from the battery.

For these reasons the battery discharges more quickly than in summer and it should be remembered that a fully charged battery never freezes, while a run-down one will do so easily. Freezing of a battery will ruin it and cost the owner a large repair bill.

SHOCK DUCKIES
Very large cut-steel and rhinestone duckies are used on the new colonial pumps. The round or oblong ones are most popular at the moment. Cut steel is used on patent leather, while the satin pump seems to call for the jeweled ornament.

Street Railway Sold to Junk Dealer

GREENFIELD, Nov. 23.—Negotiations were completed today by which the Miller's Falls branch of the Connecticut valley street railway, an electric car line 10 miles in length connecting four villages of the town of Montague, Turner's Falls, Millers Falls, Lake Pleasant and Montague, was sold to a local junk dealer, to be dismantled. The line which was built in 1895 has not paid expenses for several years, and operation of it, ceased Aug. 24, this year. The system of which this branch has been a part connects the towns of Turner's Falls, Greenfield and Amherst with the city of Northampton.

A very pleasing violin recital was given in Colonial hall last night by Phillippe O. Bergeron and his advanced pupils, with Miss Bella Lavigne, Miss Lillian Arsenault and Prof. Louis N. ## Boon for Radio Inventors

By N.E.A. Service
NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Nov. 22.—For future surprises in the advancement of radio, look to the Round Hills estate of Colonel Edward H. Green, who inherited the fortunes of the late Hettie Green, world's richest woman.

This 250-acre estate, near South Dartmouth and 10 miles from here, is scheduled to be the world's greatest experimental station for amateurs. Not only that, it will be free to any radio enthusiast who believes he has the key to an improvement in invention or otherwise in the science.

That is the announcement made by Colonel Green, and he has begun building radio towers and installing experimental apparatus at various points on his estate. At the same time he is offering an annual prize of $5000 and a gold cup to the amateur who is judged as having advanced radio farthest with his idea during the preceding year. A second prize of $2000 and a silver cup is held out for the man who has furnished the second best idea.

Colonel Green plans to go further. His plans include the establishment of a radio school for amateurs who cannot afford to pay for expert help toward experimentation on a new idea. School and college professors who show they have something worth while to develop, says Green, will be allowed to make their homes on the estate during the summer vacations.

Financial Help, Too
"Some of them, if necessary, will be placed on our payroll and receive pay for their services," Green announces. "They will be allowed to construct their sets or to work out our ideas with materials furnished by us, or they may if they wish, have their sets made by our engineers. Then they may hook up to our antennae and try out their ideas."

Colonel Green's great estate is dotted with tall steel and wooden masts for sending and receiving antennae. The gun-parlor of his handsome big mansion has been turned into an amateur laboratory and receiving station. Besides, he has built a huge loud-speaking tower on a bluff overlooking the bay, on which have been placed about a dozen great horns which amplify speech and music so that it can be heard clearly for 4½ miles over the bay and inland.

The experimental station, whose call is KLV, will take care of nine different broadcasting stations. The broadcast call is WMAE, which carries the 50, 100 and 500-watt stations. These are all built for experimental purposes only, and tests are going on daily of different types of apparatus. For instance, 13 types of loop-antennas are to be tested, to find the most practical.

Wants "Radiophone Ford"
"My aim is to hasten the advent of the 'radio-telephone' Ford," says Green, "a type of receiving set that will not cost more than $25 at the most, which will really be reliable, sensitive and simple in operation," says Colonel Green. "If I can hasten the day when every home will be equipped with a radio receiver I will be happy. We will have a special microphone for each station—one for voice; another for the organ and another for band music."

"Once a year the station will publish articles giving full details of all that has been discovered during the previous year, and this will be available for general use. We shall give inventors every opportunity to work out their ideas and to profit by them, as well as let the public profit by having them available."

There will be no buying up of patents, says Green, "no contracting against use and manufacture of the apparatus, such as is frequently done by corporations having vast quantities of material made up that would have to be scrapped if some radical improvement came along."

Charlie Murphy, radio student at Fordham University, New York, put this set together at a cost of only $21. Yet, says Murphy's instructors, the apparatus will receive messages as well as any higher priced set with one stage of amplification. Murphy is one of many students who are taking a course in radio at Fordham.

AMERICAS WILL BE UNITED BY RADIO Radio Broadcasts

The Americas, connected for some years by means of land and water cables, will be more closely united through the general adoption of radio. Already reports come that the countries of South America are giving free rein to the development of this science. The ultimate aim is the construction of stations powerful enough to transmit and receive messages over long distances.

The main difficulty against radio communication between the northern and southern continents has been the overwhelming interference from static. Messages could not cross the equator, especially in a due north and south course, due to the losses the waves would sustain in trying to penetrate the torrid zone.

After considerable study, however, radio engineers have succeeded in erecting a powerful station at a point just east of Rio de Janeiro, in Brazil, from which they hope to send messages that will be heard easily in New York and even in London. Tests are still being made toward the perfection of this station.

Meantime, the South American countries are helping the development of radio within their own borders. Brazil has a powerful broadcasting station at Rio de Janeiro and is encouraging its inhabitants in the adoption of this new form of entertainment. Chile is expected to enact legislation which will put radio broadcasting on the same liberal basis in which it finds itself in the United States. Uruguay has modified its rigid laws governing the installation of radio telephony, and is prepared to issue licenses for the erection of broadcasting stations. Argentina has also modified its regulations. A powerful radio broadcasting station is expected soon to send radio concerts out of Buenos Aires.

Other parts of South America also are contemplating advancement in the radio field.

What I Have Learned in 47 Years Practice

I HAVE been watching the results of constipation for 47 years, since I began the practice of medicine back in 1875. I am now 83 years old, and though from time to time the medical profession makes some wonderfully interesting experiments and tests, the fundamentals of causes and relief in this particular ailment are unchanged.

But the people take greater interest today in their health, in diet, exercise and the drinking of water. Constipation, however, will occur from time to time no matter how one tries to avoid it. Of next importance, then, is how to treat it when it comes. I believe in getting as close to nature as possible, hence my remedy for constipation, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is a mild vegetable compound. It is made of Egyptian senna and pepsin with agreeable aromatics. Children will not willingly take bitter things. Syrup Pepsin is pleasant-tasting, and youngsters love it. It does not gripe. Thousands of mothers have written me to that effect.

Over 10 million bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin are now sold every year, and it is the most widely bought family laxative in the world. I say family laxative because all in the family can use it with safety. It is mild enough for the infant in arms, effective in the most chronic constipation of an adult. The formula is on every package.

Recently there has been a new wave of drastic physics. Calomel, a mercurial that salivates and loosens teeth, has been revived; salt waters and powders that draw needed constituents from the blood; coal tar disguised in emulsi form that causes skin eruptions. In a practice of 47 years I have never seen any reason for their use when a medicine like Syrup Pepsin will empty the bowels just as promptly, more cleanly and gently, without gripping, and without shock to the system.

Keep free from constipation! It lowers your strength 26 per cent, hardens the arteries and brings on premature old age. Do not let a day go by without a bowel movement. Do not sit and hope but go to a druggist and get a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a generous-size bottle. Take a teaspoonful that night and by morning you will be well. The cost is only about a cent a dose. Use Syrup Pepsin for yourself and members of the family in constipation, biliousness, sour and crummy stomach, piles, indigestion, loss of appetite or sleep, and to break up fevers and colds. Always have a bottle in the house, and observe these three rules of health: Keep the head cool, the feet warm, the bowels open.

M. B. Caldwell M.D.

I REPEAT MY FREE OFFER

$10,000 worth of trial bottles of Syrup Pepsin free

Last year I offered to send $10,000 worth of free sample of my Syrup Pepsin, and sent them free and postage paid to all who asked. Thousands of mail orders were sent, but there must be many who did not write. I would like to get their address this time. So I now repeat my offer, in remembrance of my approaching 84th birthday, and will again send $10,000 worth of free sample. I am anxious to see one in every American home. Write for yours today. Simply give me your address. Send it to Dr. W. H. Caldwell, 515 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois. Mine is truly a free gift; it costs the public nothing.

opens at The Strand for a three days run today. Introduces five stellar lights in the east, headed by Harry T. Moreau, who includes Edmund Brown, George Pawcett, Marguerite Clayton and Billie Miriam Batista. They like the villain until he is put in jail, they cheer, the hero when he stopped the runaway; they sobbed and sighed when the mother was left alone; their hearts rejoiced when the hero, they cheered, the hero when he tried to eat like a grown-up, and they whispered a prayer of thanks when the thrilling suspense came to an exciting finish in "The Curse of Drink." The picture is a stunner, in that it has every known element of the thrilling and gripping of a genuine melodrama. Don't miss seeing it.

The "Long Chances" with Henry Waltham, Marguerite Clay and Ralph Graves in the east, is the second feature on the bill. It's a Peter B. Kynes story and its adaptation for the screen is very cleverly and convincingly done. If you are in search of a truly good photograph offering, then don't miss the week-end creation of Manager Forster, there is a comedy and week-end besides that adds to the value of the bill.

Publicity Often Proves Costly

BY BILLY EVANS
Presenting the "million-dollar" bases of baseball, Jimmy O'Connell, Billy Kamm and Jack Bentley.
In the spring the baseball fans of the country will give much attention to this costly trio. Publicity always arouses curiosity, and goodness knows these three young men have had more than their share of publicity.
Jimmy O'Connell goes to the New York Giants. About a year ago McGraw gave $75,000 to the San Francisco club for O'Connell. He was then a first baseman. In order to put through the deal McGraw was forced to allow O'Connell to play the following year on the coast.
Steve McGraw intends to use O'Connell as an outfielder he stipulated that he be played in the outfield rather than at first. In all probability McGraw figures on O'Connell filling the center field gap on the Giants.

Billy Kamm comes to the Chicago White Sox with the reputation of being the best third sacker ever sent east from the Coast league but has shifted his style until he got results. Last season in the Coast league Kamm batted .343, while O'Connell hit only .225. Bentley batted .355, and when not playing first base won 13 out of 14 games as a pitcher. McGraw says he intends to use him in that capacity.
What will the spring bring forth? We shall see what we shall see.
The United States has not always preceded its entrance into war by a formal declaration, having begun hostilities against Great Britain in 1812 by invading Canada and seizing British vessels in American ports.

Kamm, who is a right hander, and more or less a manufactured hitter. Kamm was a weak batter when he broke into the Coast league but has shifted his style until he got results. Last season in the Coast league Kamm batted .343, while O'Connell hit only .225. Bentley batted .355, and when not playing first base won 13 out of 14 games as a pitcher. ANOTHER TIGER WINS HONORS

Princeton, for the first time in 11 years, has performed the glorious feat of defeating both Harvard and Yale. Here is shown a Tiger thrust at the Blue goal in Saturday's game. Perfect interference by Princeton made this forward pass successful. Ken Smith, southpaw kicker, won the game with a drop from the 17-yard line.

HARVARD CONFIDENT OF WINNING FROM YALE

CAMBRIDGE, Nov. 23.—Harvard hopes to win from Yale. After days of doubt following the double defeat of the Crimson eleven, first by Princeton and then by Brown, undergraduate Harvard has changed its tune, largely as a result of word from coaches and players of confidence in their ability to stop the blue attack, and to score enough to win. This feeling has been translated into a slogan, announced by Head Coach Bob Fisher, "We are going to beat Yale."

Buell Predicts Victory
Captain Buell is wearing a Yale blue tie, but not in surrender. Since his freshman days, the Crimson quarterback has annually worn the colors of the enemy on the week preceding the engagement and he has yet to play on an eleven that has lost to Yale. He told the undergraduates in mass meeting last night that their team would win again.
Neither he nor Coach Fisher could say whether Buell would be at the head of his team when it takes the field at New Haven Saturday. He is subject to injury and not yet entirely recovered from recent hurts. In his absence George Owen will act as captain and Spaulding will be quarterback.

Fisher to Be Retained
To reports that came from New York that Percy D. Haughton would resign his old place as head coach of the Harvard team next fall, Major Fred W. Moore, graduate treasurer of athletics, replied with the positive statement that regardless of the result of Saturday's game, Fisher would be at the helm again.
The Crimson eleven was to put on a sort of dress parade for the undergraduates in the stadium today, after a last short session of secret practice, and leave tomorrow morning for the coast, where they will be stopping for a short workout in the Yale bowl.

WILL CAPTAIN TEXTILE SCHOOL TEAM

At a meeting of the letter men of the Lowell Textile school football team yesterday, Carl O. Olson of West Somerville was elected to captain the 1923 football team of the Red and Black. ## Hints to Home Decorators by Luella Parsons

DREAMERS are necessary to the world—if they put their dreams into action. This is what I tell women who talk of their "dream" houses where every room is bright and cheerful. Then I tell them to get busy and "dream true." All that is needed is a paint brush, some hot water—and Muralite.

Muralite is a wall finish that you can apply yourself and never be disappointed with the result. It can be had in any color and can be applied over painted walls, wall board, plaster, brick, or tightly-pasted plain paper, and will not rub or chip off.

The store in which you buy your paints has a Muralite Color Card. Call there today and select the color you want.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE IN DRACUT CENTRE

Close to 100 men and women attended the farmers' institute which was held yesterday in the Dracut Centre Congregational church. The affair was conducted under the auspices of the Middlesex North Agricultural society. The morning session opened at 10 o'clock with a farmers' conference. Several of those present taking part in the discussion, which was on local farm experiences. At 10:45 o'clock there was an address on "Industrial and Economic Conditions of Today" by Wentworth Stewart, a lecturer and writer, of Groton. At noon a bountiful dinner was served by the Ladies Aid society of the church and after dinner speeches were delivered by Samuel Taylor of Westford, W. T. Pratt, president of the society, Rev. Mr. Lowell of the Chelmsford Congregational church, F. A. Hanscom of Westford and Rev. William Anderson, also of Westford. The afternoon session opened at 2 o'clock with a piano selection by Miss Estes and later an address on "The Significance of the Recent Elections" was delivered by Mr. Stewart. The speaker began his afternoon address by declaring that the people had no opportunity to elect, but they did have an opportunity to check him by defeating his supporters. The country hasn't anything against Mr. Harding as a man, he said, but lacked confidence in his ability to lead. "Mr. Harding would not have been my choice for president at the start," said Mr. Stewart, warning up to his subject. "At the same time I am inclined to say that I am intimately acquainted with him, his life and career. And after he took office, he did a great many things that won the confidence of the people and refrained from doing many poor things, but then came the railroad strike and the coal strike, and Mr. Harding was not able to grapple with them. He has never been quite ready to grasp the bull by the horns, and in failing to do this he has let the little locusts get on his back on the people who were bound to show their feelings at the polls."

"The people lack confidence in the president today. It cannot be denied. Signing the tariff bill was one thing that injured his standing in the general community. There are many who do not approve of many tariff provisions. Then there has been the prohibition issue and the immigration question, but even with these standing forward, they really 'cut very little ice' in the recent election."

"Mr. Harding took office with the heritage of all the waste and unrest of the war staring him in the face. Before he could begin to lay even the foundation of his administration he had to dig out from the wreckage of inefficiency and waste that came during the war. For that reason he has had little opportunity for constructive work upon which he could be complimented or congratulated."

The speaker declared that the defeat of many members of congress who had been supporters of the administration was the result of a "psychology abroad among the people at the present time, a psychology born of the natural unrest which followed the war and which has as its chief mark of distinction the constant and unceasing desire for a change."

The meeting was presided over by Edward F. Dickinson, who was also in charge of arrangements. At the close of the day Mr. Dickinson requested those present not to forget the grand public concert by the Beethoven quartet, which will be given at the Memorial Auditorium in this city under the auspices of the society on the afternoon of Dec. 13. He stated the public will be admitted free and he said he hoped the large hall would be filled. Mr. Dickinson and Mr. George Upton are in charge of arrangements for the concert.

The "Acta Diurna" of ancient Rome, a manuscript record of current events which the government posted in public places, offered the earliest approach to a newspaper mentioned in history.

HARDING SENDS GOOD WISHES TO LIVE WIRES

HARDWICK, Nov. 22.—President Harding in a letter recently received by the Live Wires club, a boys' organization founded here last summer by John Hays Hammond, conveyed his good wishes and "the very friendly" of Laddie Boy, the White House Alreidale. He also sent his autographed photograph.

The president of the club, which is composed of boys between 10 and 13 years of age, is Donald MacMillan. The letter said in part: "Because your members are all young live wires, I am very happy to send to the club an autographed photograph for a place in its offices and very cordial good wishes, and I do not believe a boy would be quite natural if he did not love a faithful dog."

"I understand the club possesses a dog. Let me convey to him the very friendly tail wag of Laddie Boy, the White House Alreidale. Any good dog is devotedly fond of boys, and I do not believe a boy would be quite natural if he did not love a faithful dog."

In the days of P. T. Barnum, when it was announced that, in one year, the great showman had spent $50,000 on advertising, few people believed it, the sum, for that purpose, and at that time, seeming so large.

MANY HUB POLICEMEN PONZI INVESTORS

BOSTON, Nov. 22.—The statement that three-quarters of the members of the Boston police department were investors in the get-rich-quick scheme of Charles Ponzi, was made in testimony today at the trial of the promoter and five of his agents in the superior court, where multiple charges of larceny are being heard. It has been known that some policemen were caught in the collapse of the Ponzi bubble, some of them men who were assigned to investigate his schemes, but no previous information has indicated that the proportion was great. The witness who made the statement was John Dondoro, one of Ponzi's principal assistants.

Concert Forum Idea Inaugurated in Keith's Theatre Comes to Lowell

The concert forum idea inaugurated a short time ago in numerous Keith theatres in various parts of the country, has come to Lowell. Next Saturday morning at 11 o'clock for the first time in the history of Lowell theatres a morning musical program will be provided by Keith's management for the people without charges of any kind.

The idea is strictly new and originated with Edward P. Albee of the B. P. Keith theatres, and the music-loving public of Lowell and vicinity will be favored with an interesting concert next Saturday morning without cost. This attractive subject to those who love good music and who would like to hear some of the most noted foreign as well as native performers, will interest a great many people of the city and outlying towns, who perhaps may not be regular patrons of such entertainments. The Saturday morning forum programs are a part of a splendid plan conceived by Mr. Albee to have high class entertainers from time to time appear in the theatres under his control. He is seeking to assist Americans to appreciate the best in music.

Manager Albee is now arranging to have a number of old and new friends of the popular playhouse Saturday morning. The concert will start at 11, and free tickets of admission to the first delightful offering may now be obtained any day at the Keith box office.

The plans for the carrying out of these programs in Lowell will include the bringing to the city of noted artists known in concert circles everywhere throughout the country, as well as giving local artists an opportunity to appear on the stage and present their offerings.

For the first entertainment this week, Hinton Hay, eminent pianist, and assisting artists will appear. He is on the local Keith stage all this week, appearing in a most interesting act in which a "Dumb" and "Blind" man appear. Saturday morning, for the musical program to be presented to Lowell citizens at this playhouse, he will give a rare program from the masters of piano music. He offers such productions as "Chopin's Concerto in E-flat Major," "Debussy's 'Prelude' in C Major," "Mozart's 'Sonata' in C Major," and "Schubert's 'Sonata' in B-flat Major," and his own concert fantasia in E minor.

The oldest Mr. Hay, although only 21 years of age, displays a talent and a thorough mastery of all the difficulties with which his selections abound. His clear rendering of the most difficult passages, especially the chromatic scales and rapid octave work for both hands, is like a reminiscence of the great masters in the Chopin style of playing.

This concert will be the first of a series of excellent attractions of similar kind to be given free to the public at Keith's on Saturday mornings for an indefinite period.

Manager Pickett said today that he had arranged to have a number of hundreds of music lovers and tickets can be obtained at any time from the box office during the usual hours when the office is open—from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

PREPARING FOR THE WINTER MONTHS

Two new snow plows of the sweeper type have been added to the winter emergency equipment of the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway company, making the total equipment four sweepers and several V-shaped plows. With the sweeper cars as they are introduced in this city, much difficulty was encountered because of the fact that the big brushes swept everything before them high into the air, in consequence of which stones and small pebbles often times were thrown violently against windows, windshields and auto tires. That defect has been remedied in such a way that all debris in the path of the plow will be lifted gently to one side. The two new sweepers arrived at the Middlesex street car barns last Monday and are now ready to answer any and all emergencies in the event of snow.

LOWELL DISTRICT COURT

Autoist Charged With Driving Automobile While Drunk is Fined $50

Driving an auto while under the influence of liquor cost Joseph L. Bird of Newton just $50 when he appeared in district court this morning and pleaded guilty to this complaint and an additional one of drunkenness, placed against him by Motorcyclopedia Officer Hamilton.

The defendant was arrested yesterday on the Pawtucketville boulevard. In the car with him at the time were a Brighton man and a North Stratford, N. H., man, both of whom were charged with drunkenness. They admitted their guilt, but as they were both first offenders, the cases were placed on the files of the court. Bird asked for time to pay the fine, but this was refused by Judge Enright, who said that he had no sympathy for a man who got drunk and who operated an auto in that condition.

One man appeared in court, pleaded guilty to illegal keeping and was fined $100, which he paid. He is T. S. Lennick, who was arrested yesterday. James McNamara, who pleaded guilty to drunkenness some time ago but who appealed a three months' sentence to the house of correction, appeared today and withdrew his appeal. He was committed.

Walter P. O'Brien pleaded guilty to drunkenness and a suspended sentence to the state farm was revoked. He asked to have the sentence changed to the house of correction but his request was denied by the court. Frank A. Collins, found guilty of drunkenness some time ago, had his case continued until March 21, during which time he will be in the care of the probation officer. Hugh Maguire, arraigned some time ago for drunkenness and whose case was continued until today, had the case put over until Aug. 29.

Mike Shack was found guilty of non-support, and was sentenced to the house of correction for four months. Sentence was suspended for one year. Although $40 were found in his pockets when he was arrested his wife claimed that he had only been contributing $3 weekly to the support of the household. The money was turned over to the probation officer who will make the payments of a larger sum to the woman. Mike will have to come across regularly or he will go to jail, according to the court.

John Cooper, charged with non-support and "drunkenness," pleaded guilty and was committed to the state farm.

ON BOARD CLEMENCEAU'S PRIVATE CAR EN ROUTE TO BOSTON, Nov. 23. (By the Associated Press.)—Jubilant that he had at last America talking about France and French relations, Georges Clemenceau worked today on a new appeal and a new broadside of friendly criticism to be launched in his Boston address. The aged ex-premier of France was keenly interested in news of how his remarks were being received, especially in official Washington. He told Col. Stephen Bonsal, his tour conductor, that some of the comment indicated that the need for information in some quarters was "even greater than he had realized."

Between snatches of work he paused to gaze out the car window and admire the scenery. He declared himself in great form, and said he was ready to give his Boston auditors "as much of his heart" as he had given those in New York which, he added, was "all of it."

SEARCHING FOR HUSBAND

Boston Woman Heard Husband Was Injured in Auto Accident

A wife, distracted by the thought that injury has befallen her husband, is in Lowell today and is frantically searching every hospital, doctors' offices and first aid stations in the hope that she may get some trace of her husband. The woman is Mrs. Frank Angelo of 38 Fleet street, Boston.

Some time this morning the woman was notified by a friend that her husband had been injured and was in a Lowell hospital. With her sister, Mrs. Angelo rushed to this city. Arriving here without knowledge of the city, and under the handicap of being unable to speak but little English, the women turned to the first avenue open to them, the hospitals.

Arriving at the Lowell Corporation hospital they made inquiries but were told that no auto accidents or other accidents had been reported today. Noting the despair of the women and their evident inability to make much headway in their search, hospital attaches invited them to wait and endeavored to assist them.

The hospital officials report that although they made inquiries at every local hospital and place where accident cases are reported they were unable to find any trace of one involving Mr. Angelo. The police were solicited to assist in the matter but they have no right to shed upon the case. Mrs. Angelo says that her husband lives in Boston, but that he is working for some construction company in this city. She said that this morning a man came to her and said that her husband had given him a note. This stated that he had been injured, was in a Lowell hospital and that he contained the wish that his wife be notified at once. Owing to the inability of the women to give many details of the affair it is difficult for them to obtain aid from Lowell people.

Union Assents to Injunction

union to comply with the injunction for the next 10 years. If there is any breach, counsel said, the agreement calls for payment of the full amount of the bond by a surety company as liquidated damages. The firm of Elder, Whitman & Weyburn appeared for the Talbot Company.

George E. Roemer, Jr., of counsel for the Amalgamated, said a private agreement between the company and the union had been made, under which in consideration for the dismissal of 20 cases of contempt of court, the union had assented to a permanent injunction. He said he knew of no bond in the case. The filing of such a bond for such a term of years is understood to have few precedents in labor controversies in this country.

New Pastor Will Take Up His Ecclesiastical Duties at St. Patrick's Church

Rev. John J. McGarry, D.C.L., recently appointed to the permanent rectory of St. Patrick's church, this city, to succeed the late Rt. Rev. Mar. O'Brien, will take up his ecclesiastical duties in the local parish the latter part of this week, and will be present at all the masses next Sunday. Rev. Dr. McGarry is a native of Boston, was educated in the public schools of that city, the Boston Latin school and later pursued an advanced course of studies in the college of St. Laurence, Montreal, Canada. He prepared for the priesthood at St. John's Seminary, Brighton, and took a post-graduate course at the North American college in Rome, being ordained there in 1903, and honored with the degree of Doctor of Canon Law.

After his return to this country, he was stationed for a time at the Church of Our Lady Help of Christians, Concord, and was chaplain for the inmates of the Concord Reformatory. Later he served the St. Mary's church, Lawrence, going from there to St. Cecilia's, where he was assistant for three years to the late Mr. Byrne, and for the last 11 years administrator of the parish. While at St. Cecilia's he organized the St. Cecilia's College club, composed of Catholic girls in neighboring schools; the Louis Pasteur club, composed of medical students at Tufts college, and many other societies. He also supervised the construction of a handsome club building in Devereux street in the Back Bay district of Boston.

Rev. Dr. McGarry will be succeeded at St. Cecilia's by Rev. David D. Ryan, for many years assistant administrator of the parish.
